The Economic Development Department maintains an update listing of available commercial properties at no cost to anyone interested in leasing or buying a commercial space.

Searches can be performed to identify potential office, retail, industrial, and R&D space.

This service pretends to help entrepreneurs and small business interested in commercial space in Somerville.

The Economic Development department works in close collaboration with local real estate brokers and property owners identifying vacant properties for potential use.

To either request information on specific properties or add a listing to the database, please contact David Guzman, Economic Development Specialist at 617.625.6000 x2546 or dguzman@somervillema.gov.
