

HUD's regulations requiring equal access to LGBT persons include the following:

- A general equal access provision which requires housing that is funded by HUD or subject to a mortgage insured by the Federal Housing Administration (FHA) to be made available without regard to actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status;
- Clarification that the terms "family" and "household," as used in HUD programs, include persons regardless of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status;
- Prohibition on owners and operators of HUD-funded housing or housing insured by FHA from asking about an applicant's or occupant's sexual orientation or gender identity for the purpose of determining eligibility or otherwise making housing available; and
- Prohibition on FHA lenders from taking into account actual or perceived sexual orientation or gender identity in determining the adequacy of a potential borrower's income.

If you believe a housing provider or FHA-insured lender violated this rule or otherwise denied housing to someone because of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status, contact your local HUD office or HUD's Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity for help at (800) 669-9777 or (800) 927-9275 (TTY).
