1. Minutes approved – for November 26th meeting. Next meeting is Jan 28th @ City Hall 6:30pm.
2. Announcements –
 - North Point development Final Environmental Impact Report (FEIR) comments were submitted by Jim and Bhupesh.
 - Resignation – Lars Kellogg-Stedman has resigned from the committee. We wish him luck!
 - Union Square Study - Bhupesh attended presentation and requested “short term” and “long term parking” for bicycles in the square.
3. City Report - Tuck O'Brien
 - CVS proposal is up was approved by Zoning Board of Appeals. No provision was made for bike committee review.
 - Mass.Highway dept. is still working on Minuteman Trail through Davis Square. Belmont is resolving issues, and thereby providing SBC more time to finalize comments.
4. Bicycle guidelines – Turil Cronburg, Bhupesh Patel, Tuck O'Brien
 - 70% of guidelines were reviewed and small alterations were made.
 - Turil will revise and submit for review prior to next meeting.
 - Bhupesh requested drawings be kept intact as a separate sheet to effectively relay the options.
5. Alan Moore introduced himself and why he is interested in joining the bike committee.
6. Meeting adjourned at 9:07 pm.
