

Closing

After the final round of small group conversations, the facilitators heard comments and questions from the larger group. Participants shared a number of ideas and suggestions for reform, which have been reported above. In addition, participants asked questions about the meeting summary, how it would be distributed, and how its accuracy would be ensured. The facilitators clarified that a draft summary would be distributed on the City's website and by email to those who had signed up for the City's contact list (available at the meeting welcome table). After receiving and addressing comments from members of the community, the City would release a final version of the summary.
