

Size: 2017 City-wide Street Tree Removals and Plantings*

In 2017, the combined trunk size of the trees planted by the City of Somerville was over one third of the combined trunk size of the trees removed. Trees were removed because they were dead, nearly dead, presented a risk to public safety, or because they fell down.

*Numbers shown do not include trees planted or removed for capital projects or parks projects